

Canadian Editors Name Czech Crisis Greatest News Story During 1937

Adolf Hitler Is Newsiest World Figure

By The Canadian Press
Threat of war and maneuvers to stem it loomed largest in the minds of newspaper editors in Canada when they voted on the "greatest news story of 1937" and "the most newsworthy person of the year." Adolf Hitler, Canadian editors have chosen the German Führer as chief newsmaker of 1937 over Prime Minister Mackenzie King, Charles C. Doherty, and other leading figures.

Selecting the newsmaker of the year was not easy. The editors finally settled on Hitler as the most newsworthy person of the year. He was chosen over Mackenzie King, Charles C. Doherty, and other leading figures.

Stax is one of the best examples of French colonization in North Africa. Formerly a collection of mud built surrounded by an 11th century wall and with a narrow alleyway for navigation, it has been converted into one of the busiest ports in Eastern Tunisia and its desert soil has changed into a tropical garden extending 40 miles inland.

T. P. MANNING REPORTED WELL IN NORTHLAND

Young Explorer and Wife Wintering On Baffin Island

CHURCHILL, Man., Jan. 5.—No longer the "husk" of the Arctic, T. P. Manning, director of the British-Canadian Arctic expedition, one of whose members perished when swept out to sea 1,600 miles north of Churchill last September, is "wintering well."

From the icy wastes of Baffin Island Eskimos have brought word of Manning and his wife, whom he married at the Arctic station of Cape Dorset six months ago, to Resolute Bay, 600 miles north of here.

GO GOOD PROGRESS

A wireless message from Resolute Bay last night said the Eskimos reported Manning and his wife were making good progress in their explorations up the west coast of Baffin Island.

It will be many months before he returns to England with his wife, a Halifax girl, Ella Wallace Jackson, who went north last summer to become a volunteer for her wedding.

TO GO OVERLAND

Mr. and Mrs. Manning expect to go overland to Cape Dorset to join the rest of the expedition to journey to Resolute Bay.

The Eskimos reported the exploring couple were about half way up the west coast of Baffin Island, approximately 300 miles north of Cape Dorset, which is at the southern tip of Fox peninsula, Hudson Bay.

GUIANA MAY BE HOME OF GERMAN JEWS

Britain Provides Temporary Haven As Nations Tackle Problem

By J. F. SANDERSON

Canadian Press Staff Writer

LONDON, Jan. 5.—Temporary haven has been provided in Great Britain for thousands of German Jews while the nations attempt to formulate a permanent plan for settling them in the world's open spaces.

Officials of the colonial office are making progress in assessing the possibilities of a 10,000 square mile tract of British Guiana which might be used to provide homes for the Jews and Jewish families. Also, they are not neglecting Tanganyika, Kenya and others.

GREATEST OBSTACLE

Behind all the efforts is the refugee committee comprising representatives of 26 nations which at present are negotiating with the German government for a plan by which Jews could migrate with a portion of their wealth.

The great obstacle of the whole problem so far has been Germany's refusal to permit Jews to take their personal wealth with them, which has caused apprehensions in many countries they will become public charges.

Britain has stationed extra police officers in Berlin, Vienna and other German cities to handle the thousands of applications for admission to this country. Each case is handled on its merits and although many of the cases are not available, thousands have been admitted.

VAST SUMS RAISED

When they arrive, they are assisted by German-Jewish organizations which have raised sums of money given them which they will not compete with British labor. In addition, the British have given them $100,000 in cash and gold, which has been given special permits for domestic travel. Others receive training before leaving for the dominions and colonies.

1500 CHILDREN

Children, already number 1,500 are placed in family homes until they reach 18 years of age, when a special committee will be responsible for their future. The plan is to give them special training which would be useful in their life.

R.C.M.P. Officers Assigned Duties For Royal Visit

OTTAWA, Jan. 5.—R.C.M.P. officers assigned duties for the royal visit of King and Queen to Ottawa, announced Wednesday afternoon.

Assistant Commissioner C. H. King, director of criminal investigation, will be in charge of the summer and winter visits of the king and queen.

Superintendent R. B. Tait, officer commanding the R.C.M.P. of Montreal, is being transferred here to succeed King as director of criminal investigation. Super H. A. R. Ogden will succeed Tait in Montreal.

Assistant Commissioner C. L. Davidson, officer commanding the R.C.M.P. division in Regina, will take over command of "F" division at Regina.

Superintendent J. M. Tupper will take command of "A" division here.

NOBLE FAMILY HERITAGE OF FROZEN MAN

Dead Camp Cook Found Related To British Strain

FAIRBANKS, Alaska, Jan. 5.—Rear Admiral Sir John G. S. Macdonald, 10-year-old mining camp cook and one-time Saskatchewan rancher from Fairbanks, died here after a week's illness. He was buried as a member of a distinguished British family. He was buried Wednesday.

Macdonald's mother, William Crowden, said papers showed Nelson's father was the wife of John C. S. Macdonald, a general for Scotland and member of parliament for Hillhead, Glasgow.

Nelson left Great Britain many years ago to take up cattle ranching in Saskatchewan. Later he went to the Klondike, then came here.

He was found dead after apparently suffering from a heart attack while shaving.

Rotund Porkers Out Farm Experts Warn As Feed Proves Cheap

OTTAWA, Jan. 5.—They don't know any better than to eat too much, but if Canadian farmers don't curb the porkers' appetites, the equilibrium of the nation's bacon export market will be upset, officials warned today.

Feed is cheap this year as huge stocks of grain are being sold. It is available for their figures. The argument that the surplus of the pig and the surplus of the farm are getting double-edged is illogical, for if the pigs are not fed, the surplus of the farm is not available for export.

The lightest skin in evidence is from a pig, which adds 10 to 20 degrees Centigrade.
